

DISCLAIMER

The properties listed here are representative of the type of triple net properties we seek to acquire for our portfolio due to their favorable location, strong existing in-place regional or national tenants, and Class A or Class B physical characteristics.

We are working with the national commercial real estate brokerage firm CBRE, as well as other regional and national commercial brokers and local financial institutions, as we locate suitable properties, perform our due diligence, and arrange financing on favorable terms and conditions.